President's Letter

This month we have a local election in Oldsmar for city council seat 2, the city mayor and 11 different Charter Amendments (they are minor changes in the wording of already approved amendments). Voting in person takes place on March 15, 2022, and early mail in voting started on February 8, 2022. No matter who you support take the time to vote. When politicians see most of their constituents vote it tends to make them keep their promises and to respond to the issues in the community once elected.

I received a letter from the Florida Department of Business & Professional Regulation (DBPR) concerning liens on homes. You may have received one too, but I thought for those who did not I would share the information in the letter. The letter warns citizens that when they have work done by a contractor to make sure they receive a "Release of Lien" prior to making the final payment for the work. In addition, find out if the contractor has any sub-contractors that they used and have them also provide a release of lien. The reason according to the DBPR is a lien could be placed on your home and the property could be sold against your will to pay for labor, materials, or other services which your contractor may have failed to pay. With spring coming and residents taking on special projects I thought this information might be useful. If you want additional information, contact DBPR directly.

Phone: 850-487-1395,

Email: <http://www.myfloridalicense.com/contactus>

And remember if you do decide to tackle a project do not forget to fill out an application and submit it to the Architectural Committee for approval before beginning.

As for project updates, we should have at least two final bids on the spillway within the next couple of weeks. As of this letter, the pool coping work has not been scheduled and once we have a date it will be shared. The board is considering additional upgrades in the community but until we receive the quotes on the spillway and know exactly what it will cost, we will not be moving forward with approving other projects.

And finally, I would like to thank the board and all the committee members for their hard work over the past year. We would not be the great community we are without their support!

Thank you and stay safe!
John

I will be unavailable on the deadline (March 8th) for the April issue of the Gull Aire Voice. I am pleased to say a volunteer has generously offered to assist to get the issue ready. It is IMPORTANT THAT ALL CORRESPONDENCE BE SENT TO GULLAIREVOICE@GMAIL.COM, not to my personal email, or placed in the newsletter box in the clubhouse. If you have any questions, please call Kim Robinson-Morgan 734-755-0571.

If items are not received by the deadline they will not appear in this issue.

SOCIAL CLUB NEWS

Trivia game night was a big success. You may wonder what it is. Each table represented formed a team. As questions were asked the team/table silently decided on an answer. Each answer is read aloud and the team with the correct answer was awarded a prize. The answers were often very funny.

The Live Game Show was the “Not So Newlywed Game” and we had some great participants. We laughed so hard along with the couples, that many were brought to tears.

Night at the Races is always a memorable night. This time we had some new jockeys and a couple of first-time winners. For those who have never been to our races you have missed out on a lot of fun. It is a great way to meet people and laugh together.

On March 5th we have the Spring Fling and a silent auction. Come and listen to DJ Brad. We are accepting payment at the door if you have not already paid. There will be a minimum bid for each item. To bid on an item you only need to list your phone number, house number, and bid amount. Remember to watch the bids, others may bid higher, and you may need to outbid them. Bidding will continue until an announcement is made to step away from bidding tables. Payment will be explained.

Be ready to wear your green on March 19th for our St. Patrick’s Dance. We have Sequel to entertain us with great music to let us dance the night away. Bring your own food and drinks. Pick up tickets from Diana.

Be sure to watch the bulletin board to sign up for the April 9th Aloha Party. Join the Rukus Band, with Kathy and Paul, at the pool so you can dance or swim.

April 23rd is the Some Enchanted Evening Senior Prom. We can all dress up in our best and listen to The Music Box Duo bringing us songs from way back when. Black tie is not required, but we hope everyone will dress for the occasion, look our best and have a great night.

Our activities committee is always working hard to plan many events for the residents of Gull Aire. Keep watch on the many news outlets that we have such as the Voice newsletter, The Official Gull Aire Village Social Club Face book page, and Nextdoor Neighbor. Hope to see you soon at another event.

OLDSMAR CARES

I want to thank everyone who has helped start our own "Oldsmar Cares" extension for Gull Aire Village residents. Terry Sage and Christine Yho graciously secured the shelving and the initial food supply. It is now set up in the cardroom. It is fully stocked with canned foods and some personal items. If you need something, please feel free to go into the room and take what you need. No questions will be asked. There are some bags hanging in there for your use. There is also dog and cat food in cans for your pets. If you need to get meat and are unable, please contact me, Peggy Allison (304-415-2684) and I will see that your need is met.

If there is a particular item that you really need, please let me know about that as well. We are checking several times a week and replenishing items. If you would like to donate to this effort, please be reminded that we can accept canned goods only.

There is no shame in asking for help. At one time or another we all have needed a helping hand or have stepped forward to extend a hand to someone else. It's what friends and neighbors do for one another.

Peggy Allison

Veteran Group

Those who were able to attend the meeting on February the 15th enjoyed Sheriff Gualtieri as guest speaker as he shared information about the Sheriff's office. In the February newsletter we shared information about the Sheriffs Citizens Academy. Several Gull Aire Residents are currently participating in this class. It is one of the most interesting things you can get involved in.

Our veterans meeting will be canceled for the month of March due to City of Oldsmar Elections. Please, make sure you get out to vote. We will be having a special speaker in April, and it will also be open to anyone that would like to attend.

If any of our veteran families are in need of help with claims or other issues, please let us know and we will explore assistance.

The Gull Aire Village Committee to Re-Elect Mayor Seidel

John Monser Paul Allison Frank Chicollo Terry Sage
Deborah Monser Peggy Allison Nancy Chicollo Christine Yoh

Citywide Issues:

- Keeping Taxes low. The Mayor has kept our tax rate from raising here in Oldsmar and is committed to keeping the 20-year+ plus trend of no increases.
- Finish building a walkable downtown. It's important to finally deliver on this promise, but it should not be done on the back of the Taxpayers.
- Save the Bay. New Local citizen programs to improve our Bay will continue to be an emphasis.

Important to Gull Aire Village:

- Provide safe access to the Oldsmar Trails, including a resting spot to enjoy the water view.
- Continue regular communications with the Gull Aire's leadership on how the city can best help the community to stay safe during Covid.
- Remain committed to serving the Gull Aire Village community needs.

Puzzle Piece Mural

Want to be part of something BIG in Oldsmar?

Oldsmar invites residents to participate in a collaborative art project at City Hall to create a large Puzzle Piece mural. Members of the Oldsmar community are invited to create a self-portrait on a blank puzzle piece, where, once collected, they will be assembled into a large mural art installation.

The Puzzle Piece Art Project is a great way to engage the community in creating art and to be part of a meaningful piece of collaborative artwork.

Pick up a blank puzzle piece from one of the locations listed below, take it home, create your self-portrait and return it to one of the locations. There are no rules for creating your self-portrait puzzle piece – like each of us, every piece is unique!

- This is open to everyone, of any age, living or working in Oldsmar.
- No artistic experience or talent required to participate.
- Blank puzzle piece can be picked up from staff at one of the locations:

- City Hall, 100 State Street W.
- Oldsmar Public Library, 400 St. Petersburg Dr. W.
- Cypress Forest Recreation Center, 650 Pine Avenue N.
- Gull Aire Clubhouse. Please limit the pieces to just those that you will complete.

- The puzzle pieces will be available from Monday, February 14 and must be returned to one of the above locations by Friday, March 18. A box will be available in the Gull Aire Clubhouse where you can deposit completed pieces.

- You can use any medium of your choice to decorate ONE SIDE of the piece - crayons, paint, colored pencils, charcoal, watercolors, collage, or photography, etc.
- You can create a self-portrait or full-body portraits of yourself or even your family, and don't forget your pets! Why not have the whole family create one together?
- Please write your name on the back of each jigsaw piece.

Once we have collected all the finished pieces, we will assemble them into a giant mural on the walls of City Hall and hold an exhibition of portraits that represent our community. All the puzzle pieces will fit together demonstrating how important it is that we, as individuals, are all part of a larger picture. We are connected to Oldsmar and together we fit perfectly as a community. To learn more about the Puzzle Piece Mural visit our website at OldsmarPopUpArt.com or contact Lisa Schmid at Lschmid@myoldsmar.com The community is invited to an Opening Reception at Oldsmar City Hall on Tuesday, May 3 from 5 - 7pm.

Oldsmar in Orbit Planet Walk

Have you ever tried to imagine how large our solar system is?

The distance between the planets and our Sun is almost too great to calculate. You can experience a hike of a mile or two or even a hundred-mile car drive, but when it comes to the vastness in space, it's almost incomprehensible. That all changes with a unique planet walk called Oldsmar in Orbit, coming this Spring to Oldsmar. Explore the wonders of the solar system and be in awe of how much space there is in space!

Spanning nearly a mile, this scale model of 4 billion miles-to-one showcases each planet with an informational sign featuring planetary facts, astrological symbols, and the planets in relationship to each other.

The Oldsmar in Orbit Planet Walk begins at the Sun sign inside R.E Olds Park. Each planetary sign is placed proportionally to its actual distance from the Sun. Since the planets never actually coincide in a linear order, by walking directly from the Sun sign, you can visit each planet in any order and experience their enormous spatial relationships.

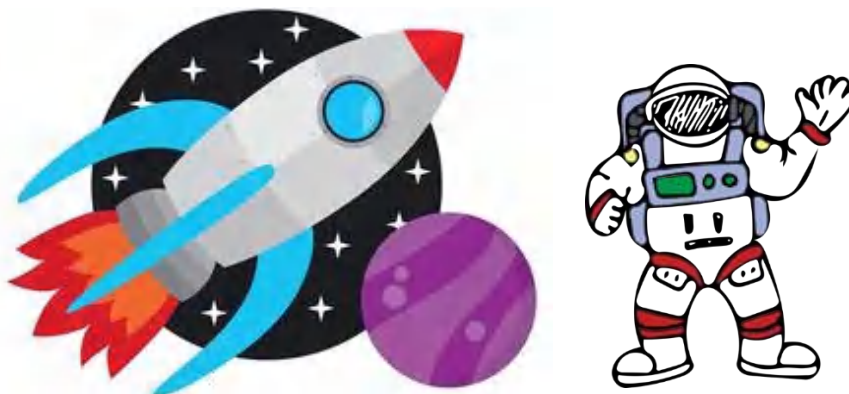

You can stroll to the nearest inner planets, Mercury, Venus, Earth, and Mars, from the Sun. A little further will be the outer planets - Jupiter and Saturn. Almost half a mile away at Veterans Memorial Park, you can visit the planet Uranus. And at the Public Library, you will find Neptune. Finally, nearly a mile away at Bicentennial Park, you'll discover Pluto.

What makes Oldsmar's Planet Walk unique is a feature called augmented reality. Watch each planet come to life in a 3-D format by downloading the FREE 'Oldsmar In Orbit' mobile app from the Apple Store or Google Play.

Former astronaut Nicole Stott narrates this stellar app. The Pinellas County native spent 104 days in outer space as a crew member on the Space Shuttle and International Space Station. You can hear Ms. Stott explain fascinating facts by clicking on the planet icon featured on each Planet Walk sign with your mobile phone.

The official 'launch' of Oldsmar in Orbit will be Saturday, March 5 at 10 am in R.E Olds Park. Members of the St. Petersburg Astronomy Club will arrive at 9:30 am with telescopes and stay throughout the day and evening for continued galactic explorations for everyone to enjoy.

Learn more by visiting: <https://www.myoldsmar.com/1137/Oldsmar-in-Orbit> . Click on "Space Programs".

Dear Dan:
As a proud direct descendent of Ransom Eli Olds, I would like to take this opportunity, on behalf of myself and other Olds family members, to endorse your candidacy for mayor of Oldsmar.

Fortunately, I have had the opportunity to work with you and the City of Oldsmar on numerous projects over the years, one of which was the Hundredth Anniversary project that you spear-headed.

Please let me know if I, or any other R. E. Olds family members can be of assistance to you in your quest to become mayor of Oldsmar.

Yours truly,

Thomas Woodward Roe
